Does a Big Job
Advertising of canned fruit and vegetables created demand, produced competition, made large and economical production possible, provided markets for the farmers and owners of orchards, and jobs for many thousands of people. The consumer profits by better quality and lower prices. Without advertising, these things could not have happened.

Meaning of Casualties
Casualties, in military use, means loss of men by death, wounds, sickness, desertion, or any other cause.

N.Y.A. TEA

The NYA girls and their supervisors gave an afternoon tea Wednesday. The tables were beautifully decorated with vases of Japonica, Splrea, and Forsythia. A hostess sat at each table to pour the lemonade. The girls had made several kinds of delicious cookies. The refreshments were served cafeteria style.

Supervisors present were: Mrs. Curtis Holt, Mrs. Amy Price, and Mrs. Glenn McKenzie. Guests were: Miss Nell Caskey, Mrs. C. K. Stacy, Miss Margaret M. Brong, Mrs. W. A. Caskey, Mrs. W. O. Blair, Mrs. Oscar McKenzie, Mrs. O. O. Haney and little daughter Nancy Webb, Miss Marguerite Rose, Mrs. J. B. Nickell and daughter Betty Jean, and Miss Dorothy Bellamy.

There are 25 of the NYA girls, of whom 17 stay over night in the NYA home.

The guests enjoyed looking at the sewing, crocheting, and embroidering the girls are doing. They took a special interest in the looms and the nice serviceable rugs they are making.

LYKINS

Cannel City, Ky.—Mrs. Addie Lykins, wife of Conner Lykins, died at a Paintsville hospital March 30, 1939, at the age of 57.

She is survived by her husband and eight children: D. L. Hayes, Lexington; Mrs. C. T. Vance, Wheelwright; Mrs. Charles Oney, Ashland; Mrs. W. S. Howard, Cannel City; Mrs. Clyde Cottle, Cannel City; Finley Lykins, Cannel City; James Lykins, LaGrange; and Jimmie Lykins, of Wheelersburg, W. Va.; also two sisters and one brother.

Mrs. Lykins had a wide acquaintance and all her acquaintances were her friends. She was always kindly and sympathetic and ready to help anyone in need.

Many out of town people attended the funeral.

Family Dinner

The Stacy family were served Sunday with a lovely Easter dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Stacy at the Cole hotel. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stacy, were present. Roland's brother, C. K. Stacy, and family, Joe and Frances Ann, of West Liberty, and Helen of Wesleyan college, and the married daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Perry and son James Randolph, of Court street, all were present. There were four generations. A nephew of Mrs. C. K. Stacy, Henry Carter, and wife, of Stanton, enjoyed the day with them. It was a happy day they all will remember.

Girls Have a Party

Miss Margaret M. Brong had a party Saturday afternoon for her intermediate girls of the Baptist Sunday school. A few of the girls were spending the week end with relatives. Present were Louise Tyree, Irma Kelly, Frances Wells, Lovel Brong, Mazie Keeton, Geraldine Nickell, Anna Ruth Lykins, Louise May, Mary West, Versie Davis, Irene West. Also present were the following guests: Nell Elam, Catherine Wells, Mary Edith Shouse, Betty Nickell, Goldie Tyler, and Betsy Louise Tyler.

Mrs. Day at Hospital

Mrs. James Day, east of town, who has been sick most of the time for a year or more, was taken to the St. Joseph hospital, Lexington, Monday. She was operated on Tuesday at 9 a.m. for gall stones. Mr. Day came back Tuesday evening, leaving her as well as could be expected. Yesterday morning the doctor told Mr. Day that he was real pleased with Mrs. Day's condition.

"Ladies' Night"

The Kiwanis club of West Liberty has set apart May 10 as regular Ladies' Night in connection with its regular weekly luncheon hour at 6 o'clock. A special program will be arranged for the occasion.

Eastern Star Inspection

Monday night, April 17, will be official inspection of Paulina chapter no. 360. All members are urged to attend.

MRS. J. L. BLAIR, Worthy Matron
Bill Vest moved his family yesterday from Tredway's property to Herman Howard's place at Fugate Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dennis have been at Campton for a few days on business.

Mrs. Harlan McClain, who had been sick all winter, is able to be out again.

THUS IS A LAW CHANGED

When last week began, the United States Government had no legal right to levy an income tax on the salaries of State and municipal employees and the States had no legal right to levy an income tax on the salaries of Federal employees.

On Monday, however, the law was altered and the Federal Government and the State governments were given the right to levy income taxes upon the salaries of the employees of the other governmental unit.

We say that the law was altered but this is incorrect. The law was not changed in any single particular. The same statute remained unaltered upon the law books. Congress did nothing whatever to bring about the new situation.

The change came about by a decision of the United States Supreme Court. After the decision it was legal to tax the salaries of the 3,800,000 persons who had been exempt from income taxes except by the government paying them. The exemption was not written into the law; it had been created by earlier decisions of the Supreme Court, going back well into the last century.

This, it seems to us, is an excellent illustration of the legislative power of the Supreme Court. Without the passage of any law, or any legislative action, the income tax laws of this country become applicable to more than three million people. In the meantime, let us note, that if the justices on the Supreme Court had not changed the court's opinion, the law would not have been altered last week.

We point to this instance, not in criticism of the judicial system of this country but to call attention to the fact that our judicial officers, of necessity, have a vital influence upon the effect of legislation. The attitude that they take toward any law is almost as important as the attitude of the legislative body.

Thus we see that the highest tribunal, its personnel affected by present social opinion and recent appointments, reverses in existence today to justify the new ruling that did not exist when the income tax amendment was placed in the Constitution. Certainly, there is no fact that was not as apparent many years ago.

Next year, when income taxes are paid, nearly four million persons will pay larger taxes and they will realize the legislative power of the Supreme Court. Nobody will be able to tell them that "Congress alone legislates" or convince them that the Court exercises nothing but a judicial function.

In its decision we think the Court has exemplified the traditional role of the judiciary in the framework of the American government. Set up as one of the checks and balances, it often happens that the Court slows down change but it inevitably follows, sooner or later, the same process sometimes speeds reform.

There is no reason to criticize the Court. Its former opinions were based upon the belief that the "right to tax" might become the "power to destroy." With this thought in mind the Court adopted a policy designed to prevent any encroachment by either the State or Federal governments upon each other. Now convinced that there will be no destruction of the powers of either Federal or State governments, if they are permitted to tax all salaries upon an equal basis, the Court abandons its defensive interpretation of the law.

Jolly Good Fellows

In announcing the opening of campaign headquarters at Louisville for Lieutenant Governor Keen Johnson for Governor, Brother Roy R. Pitchford of the Auburn Times, reached into the wrong box for the picture of Mr. Johnson and got the picture of his campaign manager, J. Lyter Donaldson, instead. The editor of the Courier does not know just how Mr. Donaldson will take this mixing up of good looking fellows but we think we know Keen Johnson well enough to know that he can take it.

Report Unfounded

The report that the brick hotel here had been sold to S. Monroe Nickell is unfounded and untrue. The heirs wish to sell the property and probably will do so but up to this time no sale has been made.

Home for Vacation

Wm. McGuire, a teacher in the schools at Raceland, is enjoying his week's Easter vacation with his mother, Mrs. Anna McGuire, and family at Bonny, this week.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Sometimes a misfortune proves to be fortunate.

No law against stealing bothers honest citizens.

There are some who think a joke must be bad to be good.

Good business includes a satisfied buyer and a satisfied seller.

Invent something to lessen work or amuse the public and your fortune is on the way.

Kentucky has a wonderful climate, but so claim the people of every other State.

When you pay your taxes do you ever stop to think what you are contributing to?

Forward-looking families are now planning to spend Pa's money on a vacation trip.

West Liberty is your town; don't fuss over it unless you have done your part to make it better.

Even the smartest individual has much to learn and the smarter they get the better they know it.

A young man of exceptional ability may be a failure unless he knows how to avoid "good excuses."

There is much confusion over the right of free speech; it does not guarantee anybody the right to speak anything anywhere.

Inasmuch as it is natural for human beings to have differences of opinion it is not a crime to oppose any proposal.

You might say that the United States Supreme Court passed some new law last week in connection with the income tax statutes.

Advice is usually worthless because older men have had more experience and rarely heed it and younger men know everything and do not need it.

LADIES' AID MEETING

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church met at the home of Lillian Blair, April 6, for their regular business meeting.

Meeting opened with song followed by Scripture readings taken from Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, giving their versions on the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord, read by Carrie Elam, Gertrude Nickell, Etna Wells and Lillian Blair.

Duet, "At Calvary" by Mrs. Carl Reeves and Mrs. Lillian Blair.

Reading on "The Little Things of Life" by Peggy Rose, Grace Adkins, Vic McClain, Mrs. Arnett and Ada McKenzie.

After business meeting the hostess served delicious refreshments and the meeting adjourned with an invitation to meet the following week with Mrs. Homer Rose.

Debt

I have discovered the philosopher's stone, that turns everything into gold: it is, "Pay as you go."—John Randolph.

Do not accustom yourself to consider debt only as an inconvenience; you will find it a calamity.—Johnson.

Debt is the secret foe of thrift, as vice and idleness are its open foes.—The debt-habit is the twin brother of poverty.—T. T. Munger.

Youth is in danger until it learns to look upon debts as furies.—Bulwer.

Mercy cancels the debt only when justice approves.—Mary Baker Eddy.

A small debt produces a debtor; a large one, an enemy.—Publius Syrus.

Roberta Brown is able to be back in school after absence due to illness.

BEING A SECRETARY

Why be a private secretary, well, why not be one?

Do you know that it is much more difficult for an employer to replace his secretary than it is for him to engage a good salesman or a teacher?

A real secretary is a cheerful, capable person who likes people, is dedicated to the task of doing her work efficiently, and can handle clients with tact and judgment. If I were asked to give the qualifications for a good secretary, I'd say the most important are: adequate education, a pleasing personality, and a good deal of common sense.

There are many distinct advantages to being a secretary. First of all, the field is varied and interesting, as varied and interesting as the hundreds of professions requiring the services of a secretary. Secretaries are well paid for their services. Perhaps they begin at a lower rate than elementary school teachers, but their advancement is more rapid.

Working conditions are usually above the average, and the respect and confidence with which a secretary is trusted by her superior officer is adequate compensation for any overtime she may have to spend.

In no other vocation that I know of does one use so many knowledges of people and events as in that of a secretary. Formal education and additional self-improvement are rewarded by the ease with which a secretary can accomplish her office work. This education should take the form of a good business course acquired after high school and if possible after a college degree has been obtained, with particular reference to English, grammar, punctuation, spelling, and usage.

One can be endowed with too much personality and charm, but common sense can never be overdone. It is the measure of success in any profession, but particularly in one where half the day is taken up with what we commonly call "meeting the public."

There are too few good secretaries. A secretary occupies an uncrowded and always fertile field. She is paid well for her services, both those which she performs and those which she has sense enough to realize she must leave unperformed. Her working conditions are far above the average. Well, then, why not be a secretary—MISS RUTH WILSON.

FORCE MAY BE NECESSARY

We yield to few people in our appreciation of the Christian doctrine of brotherly love, but, so far as we are concerned, we would not try it on a mad dog coming down the street, with evident intentions of biting anything contacted.

Much the same observation is applicable to present world affairs. We yield to no one in advocating peace between nations but we do not see how there can be peace unless all nations are anxious to have peace.

You can place a thousand men in a building and despite the desire of nine hundred ninety-nine of them for harmony and peace the other man, unless restrained by force, can disrupt the harmony and communion of all the others.

YOUR CONTRIBUTION

Every citizen of West Liberty can make a contribution to democratic government.

It is not by abusing Hitler, Mussolini or the totalitarian powers. It is not by urging a war against these nations.

All that any person here has to do to make a fight on dictatorships is to see that democracy works in our local, State and national governments. When there is a deviation from the accepted principles of democracy in the government of West Liberty, or Morgan county or any other unit of American government, it can be scored as a gain for the isms that we say we abhor.

Home from School

Bruce McKenzie and Wyck McKenzie, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McKenzie, Sr. are at home here this week from Urbana, Illinois, during Easter vacation. The boys are attending the State University at that place.

of Carter county as a candidate for Circuit Judge of the 37th Judicial District on the Democratic ballot in the August Primary.

FARMERS' COLUMN

THE FARM AND HOME

If brooding is to be done by hens, provide large, roomy brood coops. Keep dry litter on the floor and support the coops off the ground to afford protection from dampness and rats. If a brooder house is used, it should be cleaned frequently.

As soon as pigs begin to eat, which is usually about the age of 3 weeks, provide a creep where they can eat unmolested by older hogs. The entrance to the creep should be high enough to keep the pigs from bending their backs.

In making gifts of kitchenware to homemakers, select, whenever possible, more or less standard utensils, about which there is little chance for personal difference of opinion. Can openers, measuring cups, dower beaters and rolling pins come in this class.

The churning temperature in summer is 52 to 60 degrees. The most desirable temperature is that which makes the butter granules firm without being hard. This is usually obtained under normal conditions when churning takes 30 to 40 minutes.

Strawberry plants set after the middle of April are slow in starting and therefore runner formation is delayed. Best yields of berries the season after planting are produced where the runners developed early.

Throwing kerosene on live coals is a dangerous way to revive a fire, and mistaking gasoline for kerosene may be fatal. Have cans plainly marked, or better still, have no gasoline in cans about the place.

Poultry continues to pay in Harlan county, says County Agent Gray H. Williams. Eggs and broilers sell well. M. V. Hutson sold 300 two-pound broilers for 25 cents a pound, and flock owners have good incomes from the sale of eggs.

A meeting to discuss proper use of credit attracted a large number of Todd county farmers. Speakers included bankers and representatives of the State College of Agriculture, the Federal Land Bank, Farm Security Administration and other credit agencies.

One Owsley county concern reports the sale of more than five tons of lespedeza seed and large amounts of clover seed. Tests made in recent years indicate that production of legumes and other crops can be doubled by applying limestone and phosphate.

Three hundred tons of 47 percent superphosphate ordered by Adair county farmers are being spread with grain drills, lime spreaders, endgate seeders and by hand. Much of it was put on hay and pasture land. Tests show that most of the soil of the county needs phosphate.

About 25,000 seedlings, principally black locust, have been purchased in Butler county to set on badly washed land. In some sections of the county the top soil is gone and erosion now is carrying away the sub-soil, according to County Agent S. B. Kent.

QUALITY GOVERNS PRICES

That lower lamb prices late in the season are due to light weight and lack of quality, is asserted in a Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station bulletin called, "Factors Affecting the Place of Sheep on Kentucky Farms."

There is a tendency to sell lambs at lighter weights as the season advances, it is pointed out. Lambs lacking in weight are usually lacking in quality and condition, and thereby have a lower dressing percentage than lambs of a desirable market weight and condition.

It is reasonable to assume, it is said in this bulletin, that the lighter weights of lambs as well as the increased number reaching market during the advanced marketing season cause the general decrease in price.

PRIMITIVE RAISING TABOOED

Primitive hog raising methods are to be tabooed in Montgomery county, Kentucky, if a program adopted by a group of progressive farmers this spring goes over, reports County Agent Floyd McDaniels. Such proven methods as self-feeding, feeding for quick gains, special pastures, practical sanitation, and above all satisfactory breeding, must become general, if farmers are to do better with hogs, says the county agent. The group decided on the following methods:

1. Since purebred hogs are so easily and economically obtained, are better producers and feeders, make cheaper gains, finish with more quality, and above all are more attractive and more satisfactory to the owner, most farmers should own purebred sows.

2. Since it is a proved fact that the first 100 pounds gained by a pig requires such a small amount of feed, and the second 100 pounds but little more feed, when the pig is still young, farmers should try to make pigs weigh 200 pounds in at least 180 days. This will save feed and increase profits.

3. The movable light-type hog house, just large enough to accommodate one sow and litter, is most economical, sanitary and satisfactory. It can be moved from pasture to pasture and conveniently used. The old central-type of hog house is not in keeping with profitable hog production, where alfalfa, lespedeza or clover are used as pasture.

More Interest in Hogs

Owen Miller of Adair county has entered a litter of 10 Hampshire-Poland China pigs in the Kentucky ton-litter contest. He is keeping grain and tankage in a self-feeder before the pigs, and will have a grass-lespedeza pasture. He expects to make them weigh considerably more than 2,000 pounds when 165 days old. Rollin Murrell, also of Adair county, is finishing 36 Duroc pigs on grain, tankage and alfalfa pasture.

With KENTUCKY Editors

Work started here last Tuesday wrecking the old court house, to prepare for the erection of a new stone structure. Work was started in the offices formerly occupied by the circuit and county clerks and was carried on while the Lewis Fiscal court were holding their last meeting and attended to the last official business to be conducted in the old building.—Lewis County Herald.

Washington, April 1 (AP)—The Public Works Administration announced after considerable figuring today a conclusion that only .0078368 percent of the population had been untouched in some way by the PWA program. It is said only three counties had never had a PWA project. These were Ohio county, Indiana; Trimble county, Kentucky; and Kenedy county, Texas.—The Trimble Democrat.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith, of Gray, Ky., were instantly killed when run down by an Ohio automobile Thursday night on the road near their home. Julius Rigacci, 19, and Garlet Johnson, 16, left the scene but later surrendered to Corbin police. They were taken to Knox County jail. Funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who were on their way to church, were held Sunday afternoon.—The Pineville Sun.

Joe Wright has returned from Louisville where he went last week for treatment for lingering injuries as a result of an auto accident last October while returning home from work on a WPA job on Hardwick's Creek. Mr. Wright was given a thorough examination. His left ear, left eye, left shoulder and arm were found to be permanently injured, with no hope for successful treatment.—Clay City Times.

Georgetown.—Avery Tingle, Scott county farmer, had been consulting Madame Carrie, a palmist, who held consultations in a tent near a roadhouse on the Georgetown-Lexington road, for several days. Finally Madame Carrie told him that there was $18,000 in hidden treasure on his farm. She instructed him to bring her all the cash he could raise as evidence of good faith and she would tell him where the treasure was. Avery brought her $525 in cash and she told him where to look for the $18,000. It wasn't there. He went back to the tent to look for Madame Carrie. She wasn't there.

Straying from the flock and landing in a water puddle on Broadway early Saturday morning proved the end for a wild duck and the beginning of a sumptuous meal for the fortunate driver of Berry's taxi. It seems that the duck mistook the street for the river and grounded about 7:00 o'clock and not being traffic wise waited too long to take off, depriving some hunter the pleasure of using him for target practice.—The Estill Herald.

WASHINGTON NOTES

Silver

Marriner S. Eccles, chairman of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board, says that the foreign silver purchase program tends to "destroy the use of silver elsewhere in the world" and does more to "ultimately destroy the domestic silver industry than anything else I know."

Electricity

Electric consumers saved about $46,120,349 a year thru reductions in rates made between July 1, 1935, and December 31, 1937, according to the Federal Power Commission.

No Candidate

Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, of Michigan, insists he is not a candidate for the Republican nomination for President next year. Considering that it is unlikely that he will be the party leader, he has withheld his consent to proposals to generate a boom for him.

Reflection

Postal receipts reflect the "recent marked upswing in business and industry," according to Postmaster General Farley, who says that February receipts were more than $1,000,000 above those of the same month, last year.

United

The State, War and Navy Departments are united in backing the proposal to assist the American republics to increase their naval and military establishments. A pending proposal relates to the construction of warships in this country for the smaller nations of this hemisphere.

Profit

Jesse H. Jones reports the sale of $24,880,000 of railroad equipment, trust certificates and $2,140,000 of bridge bonds, held by the RFC, to a private banking firm at a profit of $1,005,315. Since the RFC resumed lending, about a year ago, it has authorized $1,078,702,956 in loans of which $211,757,757 went to 4,906 business concerns.

Pensions

Cornelius H. Bull, legislative representative of the American Veterans Association, an organization of 13,000 veterans opposed to non-service connected pensions, says that the pending bill of Congressman Rankin providing $40 a month pensions to World War veterans reaching the age of 65 will cost $13,000,000,000 ultimately, according to an estimate prepared by Hiram W. Bennett, of A.V.A. research committee.

Docks

Recommending a graving dock in New York sufficient to service the largest foreign battleships and merchant liners, Admiral William D. Leahy, Acting Secretary of the Navy, pointed out to a House committee that only Philadelphia and Norfolk can handle the proposed 45,000-ton battleships.

Impeachment

The resolution for the impeachment of Miss Perkins was recently tabled by the House after its judiciary committee reported unanimously that there was insufficient evidence to warrant a conclusion that she had conspired to defeat the immigration laws.

Super-Highways

Thomas H. MacDonald, of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, is opposed to any system of super-highways to criss-cross the continent. He says the highways should be developed, first, to take care of local traffic, and later extended for long-distance users.

For 1940

Speculation as to presidential candidates next year leads to the conclusion that, at present, the leading Republican contenders are Thomas A. Dewey and Senator Robert A. Taft. On the Democratic side, the leaders seem to be Vice President Garner, Secretary Hull and James A. Farley.

AUTO TRAFFIC

By Eastern Kentucky Automobile Club
SPRING INCREASES NIGHT DRIVING

With spring season for twilight drives and greater use of the car at night, motorists should give maximum attention to automobile headlights thru a general check-up and periodic inspection.

Motorists should consider lights on the car both from the standpoint of proper vision for the driver and also pedestrians and oncoming motorists. Badly focused headlights are one of the greatest threats to driving at night.

Pointing out that the high point for traffic fatalities is between seven and eight p.m., statistics state that many of these are attributed to glaring or otherwise faulty lights on cars. Headlights are carefully inspected and adjusted on new cars leaving the factories, but in use are taken pretty much for granted.

At this season motorists should have their automobile headlights properly serviced, lenses cleaned, bulbs inspected for full efficiency and replaced when necessary and the lights should be properly focused. Such a check-up requires only a few minutes and assure a greater degree of safety in night driving.

Many automobiles now have lights permitting beams to be switched for different needs and drivers should be fully familiar with this modern advance in car lighting.

THE DEVIL IN DISGUISE

We have awakened almost too late to find ourselves wrestling with the Devil and not a depression.

He already has claimed some of our most intelligent men as his soldiers. God's people do not need worldly intelligence to know the Devil when they meet it.

Only the Devil can make a man's heart hunger for the worldly goods and turn them into a weapon for fighting mankind.

Only a wicked man can grumble about taxation, when it means saving lives of his fellowman.

Only a wicked man can call our unfortunate ones communists or the Third Party.

If we are to accept such names, then we shall have to change the name of our United States, or the ones calling us such names will have to accept them for themselves. For we are the majority and our majority is our government.

We have just begun our fight and will not stop until every trace of this wicked monster is wiped out. MISS MARY C. MAY, 2953 Third St., Detroit, Mich.

Who knows most about Building cars?

Ford has built more than one-third of all the automobiles ever built in the world

Look at these FORD FEATURES

- STYLE LEADERSHIP—The latest car in the low-price field.
- V-8 TYPE 8-CYLINDER ENGINE—Eight cylinders give smoothness. Small cylinders give economy.
- HYDRAULIC BRAKES—Easy-acting—quick, straight stops.
- TRIPLE-CUSHIONED COMFORT—New flexible roll-over seat cushions, soft transverse springs, double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers.
- STABILIZED CHASSIS—No front-end bobbing or dipping. Level starts, level stops, level ride.
- SCIENTIFIC SOUNDPROOFING—Noise hushed for quiet ride.
- LOW PRICES—Advertised prices include many items of desirable equipment.

THERE are more Ford cars in use today than any other make. And there are more Ford V-8s than any other 8-cylinder car.

The 1939 Ford V-8 represents the broadest experience in building cars any manufacturer ever had. You will find values in it far beyond what any other maker can put into a car at the low Ford price.

Ford performance, traditional for a generation, has reached new heights in the 1939 V-8.

And now Ford style leadership is equally outstanding. "The smartest cars on the road" is the way owners describe their new Fords. Smartest in action. Smartest in appearance. Leaders, as they deserve to be.

FORD V-8

APRIL IS FORD INVITATION MONTH! Your Ford dealer invites you to drive America's most modern low-priced car. Make a date for a new experience.

Original Operetta

The children of the 3d, 4th, 5th, and 6th grades are writing an original operetta to be given at commencement. This will be a dramatization of the old fairy story, "Cinderella." The first two acts are complete and rehearsals have started.

Gene Sebastian as the Prince will sing Stephen C. Foster's "Beautiful Dreamer" and Mary Margaret Nickell (Cinderella) will charm you with two of the loveliest of the songs from "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." Jimmy Dale Howard is a funny kink's jester, who turns cartwheels apparently to amuse the Prince but it may be for the benefit of Jenalee Moore, the golden "Sunbeam" of the Court.

Four and twenty blackbirds will be baked in a pie—and such a pie! There's to be a wishing well—a fairy land garden bathed in silver moonlight—but we don't want to tell you too much. Watch this paper for further details.

A BUSY LAD

When you call to the Spring he answers and sings, "I'll be there by the tip of your hair." The trees shall be glad for their friend the lad.

The winter drives spring away but next summer it shall be spring's time to play.

LARUE PEYTON, Third Grade.

The M. C. H. S. Chapter of the Future Farmers of America presented the Chapel program in high school auditorium April 7, 1939.

The program began with devotionals by Jean Potter. The officers of the chapter went thru the opening ceremonies. An original poem was given by Clint Potter concerning the FFA, followed by a talk, "History of the FFA" by Stuart Lawson.

The following students of vocational agriculture were initiated and presented with emblems and membership cards: S. E. Craft, Lacy DeLong, Emerson Brown, Wallace Jackson Brown, Ford Meadows, Walter Oldfield, Joseph Peyton, Dewie Potter, Clay Ratliff and Paul Vance. The Future Farmers held their regular meeting Tuesday, April 4, 1939. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The following boys became green hand members of the chapter: S. E. Craft, Hudson Oldfield, Lacy DeLong, Joseph Peyton, Dewie Potter and Clay Ratliff.

There is a total of twenty-two boys who belong to the Morgan County Chapter; eleven greenhands and eleven Future Farmers.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

The County Oratorical Contest sponsored by the Kentucky Bankers Association will be held in the high school auditorium, Monday evening, April 17, 7:30 o'clock. The following judges from outside the county have been selected: Honorable H. H. Ramsey, Salyersville; Dr. Russell F. Terrill, Morehead State Teachers College, Morehead; Dudley Caudill, Cashier People's Bank, Morehead.

Miss Hazel Brown will represent the Morgan County High School. Both Ezel and Crockett will have entries in the contest.

The county prizes will be $15.00 first; $10.00 second; and $5.00 third. Parents are urged to attend.

Egg Hunt

The pupils of the Fifth Grade enjoyed an egg hunt Friday afternoon from 2:00—3:00. Elizabeth Adkins, Paul Lerald Reed and James McKenzie hid the eggs in the northeast corner of the school campus. After the eggs were hidden we went in search for them. It was lots of fun to see who could find the most eggs. After we found all the eggs we marched back to our room and what should be waiting for us but a basket of candy eggs and rabbits on each of our desks as a surprise from our teacher.

We are now working on a bird unit and we would appreciate any contributions on birds or bird life, such as poems, stories, pictures or anything pertaining to birds.

High school pupils will be dismissed Wednesday at 12:10 a.m., in order that the teachers may attend KEA which is being held in Louisville.

PACK HORSE LIBRARY, LENOX

The people of this community and other communities which I visit seem to take a deep interest in the Pack Horse Library business. They say it's the greatest project going; that the books are good for anyone to read.

I wish to thank the readers of my books and magazines for the care which they give them and also for the books and magazines which they have donated to me.

Here are a few of those who have donated books and magazines:

Mrs. J. C. Dennison, 7 magazines; Mrs. J. F. Elam, 4 magazines; Mrs. Willie Adkins, 7 magazines and one book; Mrs. Delmer Lacy, 6 magazines; Mrs. Kelly Johnson, 3 magazines and two books; Miss Edna Shaver, 2 books; Mrs. Leander Johnson, 3 books; Willie Cox, 6 magazines; Walter Johnson, 12 magazines.

I thank you all and others too, who have made donations. I appreciate your interest in this work.

I enjoy meeting good people which I find over this part of Morgan county and wish to visit you regularly.

PHOEBE ELAM

AMERICAN BOY MAGAZINE COMPANION TO THOUSANDS

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine.

"It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood chum," writes one high school senior. "THE AMERICAN BOY seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in THE AMERICAN BOY."

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, basketball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys' clubs also recommend THE AMERICAN BOY enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of THE AMERICAN BOY advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in THE AMERICAN BOY, the sort of reading matter boys like best.

THE AMERICAN BOY sells on most newsstands at 15c a copy. Subscription prices are $1.50 for one year or $3.00 for three years. Foreign rates 50c a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to THE AMERICAN BOY, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

PTA MEETING

The PTA held the last meeting of the school year Monday, April 10. The following program was very well presented:

Devotional—W. O. Pelfrey
Business Session—
Glee Club—Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes, Steal Away, Swing Low Sweet Chariot.
Piano:
Minuet in F. by Mozart—Lovel Brong
Minuet in G. Beethoven—Betty Jo Whit

March Militaire, Schubert—First piano: Mrs. Byrne, Mrs. Lewis; Second piano: Mildred Whitt, Ivis Whitt.
Band:
Military Escort by Bennett
Safety by Bennett
Headway by Bennett
A Little Bit of Pop by Al Hayes
El Captain by Sousa
National Anthem

At the close of this program Dr. Wallace Byrd presented two movies: Man Against Microbes and Once Upon a Time. These were enjoyed very much by the audience.

During the business session the committees for the Junior-Senior banquet were announced and will be printed in this paper next week.

Mr. Haney made plans for a new playground as the stadium which has been erected takes up most of the land previously devoted to that phase of school life. Also plans were considered for the erection of an administration and domestic science building on the campus.

ALL DRESSED UP FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR

Already the dairy barn is built; some of the cattle selected, and definite plans have been made for taking 150 of the finest dairy cattle of North America to the New York World's Fair. In the above picture is shown the ground-breaking party that started the project on its way. The calves came to represent the five dairy breeds which will participate and from left to right they are Guernsey, Jersey, Brown-Swiss, Holstein, and Ayrshire.

The folks with them are: (Left to right) George M. Waugh, Jr., executive vice-president, The Borden Company; Wm. F. Fretz (petting calf), representing the American Guernsey Cattle Club; Lou Morley, Secretary, American Jersey Cattle Club;

Everett Waddy, Jr., representing the Brown-Swiss Association; D. N. Boice, representing the Brown-Swiss Association; Theodore G. Montague, President The Borden Company; Grover Whalen, representing the New York World's Fair; Mark Kenney, representing the Holstein-Friesian Association; D. W. McLaury, the Holstein-Friesian Association; Henry W. Jeffers, Sr., representing the Walker-Gordon Laboratories, Division of The Borden Company.

The cows will be milked three times daily and will be fed, housed and cared for as part of the Borden exhibit. The display is located on the Central Mall of the World's Fair and for once the dairy cow has "made Broadway."
